Over the years you and your friends have been ordered about in small ways by signs. You have been asked to follow the straight and narrow path, to walk along the dotted line, to not fold, spindle, or mutilate. The perfect road has always been shown to you and only in your own small way have you finally decided to follow your heart. You have been almost mesmerized by a barrage of messages telling, asking, pleading, and ordering you to do what is supposed to be done. Now perhaps it is time to consider not the words on the many signs, but a feeling in your heart, a sign in the eyes of your soul to read on, to follow the dictates of a whispering voice within your heart which keeps telling you to "watch your step!"

November — Billy Lockridge, Deborah Stewart

David, well babe how are you? I've finally gotten to know you from my Soph. year after having such a crush on you in my 8th + 9th grade year. anyway — you a really great guy thats always been really nice to me. Your great looking and could get any girl you want. If it weren't for Diane I'd say lets get together sometime but good luck with her anyway okay?! Swear, everyone thinks the whole world of you - especially me. I guess I'll always feel sort of like your special to me. We've never had any disagreements and I have never had any reason to go against you. You have always been so sweet to me - always in a terrific mood - Probably cause your always smoking but we anyway - I cherish our friendship and want to make more of it.

They Wanted JELL-O

I wish you would call & come + see me too. I'd sure like to be better friends with you. Man, what could it hurt? See if you can't work it out and be good - I'll always love you. Your great. Really

10:15-11:15. Wednesday and Thursday deadlines. Mr. Scott's room 231. Stories, columns, editorials, features, disc dialogues, and movie reviews. That's what "J" class did all year, writing good and bad copy but evidently good enough to be chosen STAFF OF THE YEAR of all the Tulsa Public High Schools that subjected material to School Life. "The Scot staff had more copy printed than the next two schools combined. They sent in a great deal of quality material and they were always on time." That was the statement that appeared in the last issue of School Life which will be discontinued next year. As Mr. Scott, our fearless leader would say, "Write On!"
